The schedule we use follows:

A. The minimum payment required is the New Balance shown on your statement if the amount is equal to or less than $25.00.

B. If the New Balance exceeds $25.00, the minimum payment is 1% (percent) of the New Balance (rounded up to the nearest dollar) plus any cycle to date FINANCE CHARGES and the unpaid late fees. The Total Minimum Payment will include the Minimum Payment calculated above, plus any amount in excess of your credit limit and any amount past due.

From time to time, if your account qualifies, we may allow you to skip your minimum periodic payment during a billing cycle. If you skip a payment, finance charges will continue to be due in the month following the month in which you skip the payment.

10. A FINANCE CHARGE will be imposed on your account under the following conditions:

A. PURCHASES A Finance Charge will be imposed on Credit Purchases only if you do not pay the entire New Balance shown on your monthly statement for the previous billing cycle within 25 days from the closing date of that statement. B. CASH ADVANCES/CASH EQUIVALENTS

A Finance Charge will be imposed on Cash Advances from the date made and will continue to accrue on the unpaid average daily balance of such Cash Advances until the date of payment if paid during the same billing cycle, or until the closing date of the billing cycle preceding the date on which the entire New Balance is paid in full or until the date of payment if more than 25 days from the closing date.

Cash Equivalents that will be treated as cash: Wire transfers, court filings, purchase of travelers checks, money orders, foreign currency, lottery tickets or gaming chips, placing wagers (if legal), or to make tax or similar payments.

The Finance Charge for a billing cycle is computed by applying the Monthly Periodic Rate to the average daily balance of Cash Advances, which is determined by dividing the sum of the daily balances by the number of days in the billing cycle. Each daily balance of Cash Advances is determined by adding to the outstanding unpaid balance of Cash Advances at the beginning of the billing cycle any new Cash Advances posted to your account, and subtracting any payments as received or credits as posted to your account, but excluding any unpaid Finance Charges.

If the total charges do exceed the credit line, you agree, when we request, to make a payment to reduce the total on your account to an amount below your credit line.

17. If you revoke the authority of someone to use your account, revocation is not effective until that person’s card expires or you return it to us, whichever is first; provided, however, each joint user agrees to pay all amounts due us for charges made by any joint user until all cards are returned to us and the balances are paid in full.

18. You agree to notify us promptly by telephone of the loss or theft of any credit card bearing your account number. You may notify us by telephone at (866) 839-3485. 23. We can consider you in default if you provide us with false information or signature, if you try to exceed or do exceed your credit line without our permission, if you fail to provide updated information which we request from time to time, if you become subject to bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings, if attachment or garnishment proceedings are instituted against you or your property, if there is any event which we believe causes the prospect of payment to be significantly impaired, if you fail to comply with any provision of this agreement or in the event of death. Default on any account with us will constitute default on all accounts with us. Upon default, at our option and under applicable law, we can declare all amounts on your account immediately due and payable. Also, we can exercise all rights available to us under law to collect what you owe us. All remedies are cumulative and our failure to exercise any one shall not affect our rights to any other remedy.

24. If Bank incurs collection costs or attorney fees in connection with your account, as permitted by applicable law, you agree to pay the reasonable costs of collection, including, but not limited to, attorney fees and collection fees in an amount not to exceed 15% of the unpaid debt on your account if such limitation is required by law.

VISA – The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is:

- A rate selected by VISA from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives, or

- The government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date.

27. We can change the terms of this agreement including changing the periodic rate and the annual percentage rate on the existing balance of your account to the maximum rate allowed by law, even if that maximum rate increases after the date of this agreement. We will, of course, comply with applicable law about notice to you if we make any changes.

28. We can waive, or choose not to enforce, any of our rights under this agreement at any time, without the waiver affecting any of our other rights. A waiver on one occasion will not act as a waiver of the same right at a future time.

Notify us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet of paper at the address listed on your bill. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:
-Your name and account number.
-The dollar amount of the suspected error.
-Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your checking or savings account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment your letter must reach us three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit line. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we did not make a mistake, you will have to pay finance charges, and the balance will be due and payable in full upon receipt of your next billing statement. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we do not follow these rules we cannot collect the first $50.00 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
